

Please read the Notes overleaf before completing this expression of wishes. Throughout this form, words or phrases which are shown in 'bold italics' are explained in the separate Glossary, which you should refer to when completing this form.

On your death, the funds remaining in your Barnett Waddingham SIPP will be applied in accordance with the trust deed and rules to provide lump sum and/or pension death benefits to the selected recipients. BW SIPP LLP (the operator) will decide the recipients of the benefits available, but can take account of your expression of wishes.

If you want the operator to consider paying benefits to one or more individuals or trusts chosen by you, you should give details below, indicate the percentage of your funds that each should receive, and specify whether you would like this to be paid as a lump sum or as pension income.

General notes – Beneficiary's expression of wishes

Please note: These notes are intended to be a short and easily understood summary of the scheme rules and complex tax legislation, as at the date of publication. They do not override those rules or legislation and are not a substitute for specific legal or tax advice. The rules and legislation are subject to change in the future.

1. Completing the expression of wishes form is optional, but strongly advised. Its contents are not binding on the operator, the trustee, your Barnett Waddingham SIPP or the scheme. The operator has discretion to decide who should benefit from your Barnett Waddingham SIPP funds on your death but will take your expression of wishes form into consideration. The operator will also consult with your family and executors of your Will.
2. Where you have indicated a preference for payment of a lump sum over pension income, the operator still retains discretion over the exact form of benefits and the recipients. The operator may consult with your beneficiaries and/or successors as to the manner in which benefits are paid.
3. The operator may consider any person, charity or trust that you nominate for lump sum benefits. A charity can only be paid a tax-free lump sum if there are no surviving dependants of the member originally associated with your flexi-access drawdown fund. The charity must be nominated by you before your death. Lump sum payments to trusts are subject to tax as set out in Notes 7 and 8.
4. The operator can only consider individuals that you nominate (called successors) for pension income, and can only consider other individuals in the absence of any nominated successors or nominated charities.
5. If you wish to provide for minors as potential beneficiaries or successors, you may wish to set up an appropriate trust (if you do not already have one) with your solicitor, and provide the relevant details in your expression of wishes form.
6. Currently, both lump sum and pension income payments are free from Inheritance Tax, as the operator has discretion over the exact form of benefits and the recipients. To maintain this exemption, you should not mention your expression of wishes or your Barnett Waddingham SIPP in your Will.
7. The taxation of death benefits regularly changes. Currently, if you die before age 75, any unused funds will usually be paid tax-free to both individuals and non-individuals, which could include a trust or company. Funds must be designated into a successor's flexi-access drawdown fund within two years of the date of your death in order for the pension to be paid tax-free. Lump sums must be paid out within two years of the date we receive notification of your death in order to be paid tax-free.

8. If you die at or after age 75, for the 2016/17 tax year onwards, until the Government notifies otherwise, Income Tax will be payable at the recipient's marginal tax rate on both lump sum payments and pension income, where the recipient is an individual. Where a lump sum is paid to a non-individual, which could include a trust or company, an up-front 45% tax charge will apply until the Government notifies otherwise.
9. This expression of wishes revokes any previous expression of wishes that you have made. You may change or withdraw your expression of wishes at any time by writing to us at the following address:
BW SIPP LLP, PO Box 1209, Cheltenham, Gloucestershire, GL50 9WE.
10. You should review your expression of wishes at regular intervals, particularly when there is any change in your personal circumstances. You should ask for a new form when you have reached age 75.
11. If a successor dies leaving unused flexi-access drawdown pension funds, he/she can pass those funds to another successor either to provide flexi-access drawdown pension through a successor's flexi-access drawdown fund, or to be paid as a lump sum death benefit. The tax treatment is the same as described above in Notes 7 and 8.
